West Godavari District.

....Respondent

ORDER: (Per. Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Prakash Rao)

Heard the learned Government Pleader for Services-I and the learned counsel for the respondent.

Being dissatisfied with the order dated 6.1.2006 passed in
O.A.No.119 of 2006 by the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad, the petitioners filed the present writ petition seeking a Writ of Certiorari to set aside the ad interim order, whereby the petitioners were directed to permit the respondent-applicant to appear for the written examination, without insisting upon the age limit, to the post of Building Overseer, which is scheduled to be held on 20.1.2006 or on any subsequent date, pending further orders.

The learned Government Pleader for Services-I submitted that in fact the examination is postponed. He also submitted that a detailed counter affidavit along with vacate stay application has already been filed and the same is still pending consideration. Further, according to him, the questions involved are greater importance and there are several O.As were filed before the Tribunal on the same set of facts and interim directions were given therein.

Having heard the learned Government Pleader for Services-I and also on perusal of the material on record, it is seen that the impugned order passed by the Tribunal is only an ad interim order and not a final order. Therefore, there is no need to interfere with the said order, more so, when the petitioners herein had already filed counter along with vacate stay application. However, having regard to the urgency in the matter, to meet the ends of justice, it would suffice to direct the Tribunal to dispose of the main O.A. along with similar batch of cases as expeditiously as possible.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of directing the Tribunal to take up the main O.A. itself along with similar batch of cases and dispose of the same within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No order as to costs.
